MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES

AT

THE OLD RECTORY

- RESTAURANT WITH ROOMS -

'The best kept secret in Norwich.....'

The pool terrace and gardens are a relaxing location during the summer months with comfy sun loungers and relaxer chairs.

THE OLD RECTORY 'RESTAURANT WITH ROOMS'

A fine Grade II listed Georgian house dating back to 1754 with adjoining Victorian Coach House and the home of Chris, Sally & James Entwistle; we are proud to be Norwich's only AA 4* Gold 2 Rosette 'Restaurant with Rooms'. We are situated in mature gardens in a residential Conservation Area on the eastern fringes of Norwich, about 2 miles from the city centre, overlooking the Yare valley and Thorpe Marshes NWT reserve. Eight beautifully appointed guest rooms offer every comfort to leisure and business travellers alike; elegant public rooms, a calm and relaxing atmosphere, warm hospitality and exquisite food make The Old Rectory a delightful setting for a Short Break or a rejuvenating overnight stay.

THE WELLINGTONIA ROOM

With lots of natural daylight from its floor to ceiling picture window, and delightful outlook onto the pool terrace and gardens, the Wellingtonia Room offers a unique venue for business meetings and training courses up to 14 delegates.

It is our only meeting space so you are assured of privacy and our personal attention to your requirements; the calm, comfortable atmosphere provides the perfect environment to think, plan, discuss and deliver - the perfect environment in which to achieve your goals.

The Wellingtonia Room

THE CONSERVATORY

The light and airy Conservatory adjoins the Wellingtonia Room and offers a flexible and relaxing space for refreshment breaks. Double patio doors open out onto the pool terrace where in spring and summer you can enjoy tea and coffee service outside if you wish.

Whilst the Wellingtonia Room and toilet facilities are all on one level, the Conservatory is reached via three wide steps (with handrail). Outside terrace seating is available on the same level as the Wellingtonia Room.
